ON THE COVER:
These four learning processes can serve as tools to help educators teach in a way that aligns with the principles of literacy. Learn more on p. 22.

Features

ACTFL ANNUAL CONVENTION & WORLD LANGUAGES EXPO
BOSTON NOV. 18-20 2016
IMPACT ACTFL
JOIN US!
Learn more on p. 16.

VOLUME 11 | ISSUE 4
OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 2016

Departments

President’s Message
ACTFL President Pete Swanson 7

Breaking News 8
BriefBits 11
Inside ACTFL 12
So You Say 50
Legislative Look 52
Tech Watch 59
Upcoming Events Calendar 62
Advertiser Index 63
In Memoriam 63

Look for this symbol in this printed edition of The Language Educator. It alerts you to enhanced content available in TLE Online, the interactive version of the magazine available at www.thelanguageeducator.org.

FOCUSTOPIC

22 Introduction: CONNECTING LITERACY AND LANGUAGE LEARNING
Heather Willis Allen and Donna Clementi

26 Building Literacy Bridges Through Language Teaching
Jon Nordmeyer and Gabriela Jiménez

29 Ask New Questions: Inquiry as the New Literacy
Laura Sexton

32 Digital Literacy and Social Media in the Language Classroom
William Justin Morgan, Alyssia Miller, and Bryan Koronkiewicz

36 Blogging to Build Digital Literacy and Community Awareness
Grant Gearhart

40 Teaching Digital Literacy Through Documentary Creation in the Language Classroom
Julie A. Sellers

43 Transporting Students via Virtual Field Trips: The Potential for Literacy Development
Cassandra Glynn

46 “I Could Have Written That Story!” Using Linoit and Google Docs to Co-Create Stories in the Language Classroom
Paula Renzi-Callaghan and Meredith Haskins