Official Convention Program Guide

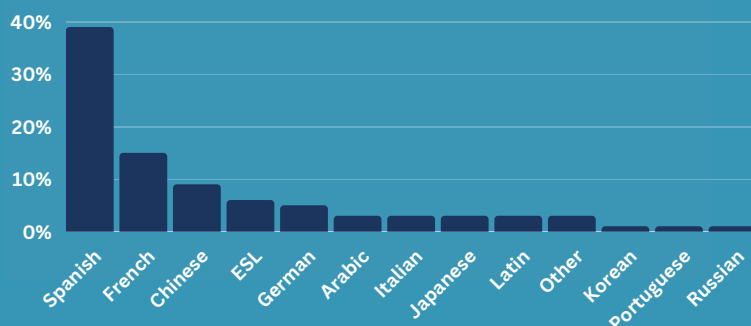

At 100 pages, the official program guide is the road map that attendees rely on to maximize their conference experience. It contains detailed descriptions of more than 800 workshops and program sessions, maps of hotels and convention venues, a chart of the exhibition hall, descriptions of exhibitors, rosters of the leadership of ACTFL and related organizations, and much more.

The program serves not only as a guide to the convention, but also as a year-round reference of the organizations and people who comprise the language learning profession. Certainly, exhibitors use program guide advertising as a means of previewing their products and services and to invite attendees to their on-site booths. An ad in the program guide positions your company as an active supporter of the profession, and it is a marketing tool that will pay dividends throughout the year. General Advertising Information & Conditions

Material Requirements

All ads must be submitted electronically via email or electronic transfer system, ideally as a print-quality PDF with all fonts converted to outlines and images embedded. Print ad files must be at least 300 dpi in resolution and CMYK in color. Files at less than 300 dpi may compromise the quality of reproduction. If your full-page print ad has bleeds, then bleeds should be set at .25". Please include crop marks for all print ads. Digital ad files should be at least 72 dpi and RGB in color. A hard copy color proof, sized at 100% and looking exactly as the advertiser expects, should be mailed in for every ad being placed. There can be no assurance of a printed match to original ad files without a hard copy color proof. Advertisers choosing multiple insertions may change copy for each insertion without charge. Please call to confirm specifications if you have any questions about the format of your ad.

Billing

All payments are due within 10 days of invoice date. Interest of 1.5% per month will be charged on invoices after 30 days from invoice date. A sample page containing a published version of the advertisement will be provided only upon written request from the Advertiser. Failure to provide tear sheets is not a breach of contract by ACTFL. There is no agency discount. Invoices not paid within 30 days of billing date are subject to a 2% per month service charge. Payment must be made either by credit card (MasterCard or Visa) or by check or money order drawn on a U.S. bank in U.S. dollars. Rates quoted are valid for the current calendar year only.

Cancellation

Cancellation of reservations must be made in writing by mail, fax, or e-mail by the production closing date. Such cancellations will be accepted after the closing date if the particular publication can be redesigned without disrupting printing schedules or incurring additional expense; otherwise, the advertiser will be responsible for the full cost of the alteration.

Claims

ACTFL will not be liable for any costs or damages arising from failure to publish an advertisement or if errors appear in an ad's text or key codes. There is no guarantee the color and image quality will be exact, but every effort will be made to create the best reproduction possible. Advertisers and their agents agree to indemnify and protect ACTFL from all claims, actions, or expenses arising from advertising placed in its publications.
